

Rev. Sue MillerBorn
Staff Minister

Reverend Sue MillerBorn is a registered nurse who has worked at Shasta Regional Medical Center since 1977. She currently is enjoying her work there as a recovery room nurse. She is a certified yoga instructor in both Hatha Yoga and Cardiac Yoga. Sue currently presents her yoga class located at the Spiritual Enrichment Center on Mondays and Wednesdays and often times presents yoga at church retreats. Sue has been a member of Religious Science since the 1980s. She became a Licensed Practitioner in 2001 and completed a course of study in Ministry with Religious Science in July 2003 becoming a licensed minister in December 2003.

Ministry: Sue's area of ministry is focused on leadership of the Peace Center at the Spiritual Enrichment Center which is affiliated with the International Centers for Spiritual Living's Peace Centers, formerly known as Religious Science International's Peace Centers. She also serves as the minister facilitating the women's group, the Sacred Sisters, which meets the second Monday of each month at 7 PM - 8:30 PM. Sue works closely with Sandy Babcock, Registered Nurse and member of the Spiritual Enrichment Center, who spearheads the Health Ministry serving as the designated Registered Faith Community Nurse encouraging health and wellness within the community. Sue also teaches Science of Mind classes throughout the year.

It is Rev. Sue's intention to be available to serve the community as needs arise both in spiritual counseling and coaching. Like all ministers at the Spiritual Enrichment Center, Rev Sue officiates at weddings, memorials/funerals, christenings and special ceremonies and also serves as a Practitioner.
