

Rev. Kay Stewart
Staff Minister

Rev. Kay started with the Redding Church in 1989 as a member with her husband, Mike. Her children; Chris, Wendi, and Stacy, attended Youth Group at the time. Rev. Kay became a practitioner in 1996, serving the church until 1998. She received her Ministerial License while at the Lafayette Church with Rev. Jaine Ryder.

Rev. Kay worked as a staff minister and office manager for the center in Sacramento for several years with Rev. Sandy Freeman-Loomis. She also helped open the Elk Grove Center with Rev. Bill Caldwell.

The last five years, Rev. Kay has been the pastor of the Elko church in Nevada and has moved back to Redding this year – 2011 to be a staff minister. She brings her husband, mother, and a daughter with her.

Children and Family Ministry is the focus of Rev. Kay's ministry in the Redding Center. She is available for counseling and treatment; you can contact her at (530) 440-6700 or revkay1951@gmail.com.
