

Dr. Andrea Asebedo
Retired Pastor/Staff Minister

Rev. Dr. Andrea Asebedo recently retired as Senior Minister for the Spiritual Enrichment Center after serving our community for twenty-seven years but continues sharing her gifts as a retired pastor at the Center. She is delighted to be assisting the Rev. Sue Miller-Born with the monthly women's group, to be supporting our growing children's church program and to be a regular meditation instructor on Tuesday mornings at the Meditation Pavilion.

Dr. Andrea is a popular guest speaker and teacher currently serving on the faculty of the Holmes Institute, the ministerial training facility for United Centers for Spiritual Living. She is also pleased to be serving college students as their mental health counselor at the College of the Siskiyous in Mt. Shasta. Dr. Andrea also brings her considerable gifts to her post-retirement career as Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with two private practice offices, one in Redding and one in Mt. Shasta.

Ministry: Dr. Andrea has served International Centers for Spiritual Living in a number of capacities through the years. She served on the Youth Seminars Executive Committee for over twenty years, ultimately serving as Director of Youth for two years. During her term as Director of Youth she shepherded the creation of new curriculum for the children and youth of RSI and traveled extensively training and supporting youth advisors and children's church teachers and the churches they serve. Her service to the youth was rewarded in 2004 when she received the prestigious "Youth Champion of the Year" award. Dr. Andrea also has served on the Religious Science International Board of Directors, has participated in the Mentorship program for new ministers and has pushed for advanced training for ministers in counseling and professional excellence. She currently serves on the Ethics Committee for ICSL.

As a retired minister Dr. Andrea is available to officiate at weddings, christenings, commitment ceremonies and memorials and loves serving in these sacred ceremonies. She is also known for her healing work in prayer.

Contact Rev. Dr. Andrea at andreaasebedo@att.net